Less than 90 days prior to departure:	100% of Total Tour Cost

In addition to the fee stated above, any cancellation fees, surcharges, or nonrefundable deposits charged to National Parks Revealed by its suppliers, such as individual hotels, airlines or other third parties, will be added to and part of the cancellation fee per person.

CANCELLATIONS OR MODIFICATIONS BY NATIONAL PARKS REVEALED

Providing you with a well-organized and secure tour is our primary concern. Please note that occasionally it may be necessary to modify the itinerary or cancel the tour due to conditions or hazards outside of our control and we reserve the right to do so. When the conditions are those that permit us to modify but not cancel a tour, for example due to weather, we will endeavor to add other sights and activities to replace those omitted. If the itinerary is modified to one that is more expensive than the original, the client's advance approval will be obtained and the client will be charged the difference between the original and modified itineraries. The client is also responsible for all additional transportation or lodging costs that are necessitated by weather. Because you can protect your financial investment by purchasing travel insurance/travel protection that covers changes and cancellations for weather and other causes and because of our relationships with our suppliers, we do not provide full or partial refunds for changes or cancellations due to weather, closures of parks for any reason including force majeure, government funding issues, acts of nature or any other causes whatsoever that are outside the control of National Parks Revealed (including acts of our suppliers).

In addition, if you have planned to travel by air to a tour or lodging facility that can also be accessed by ground transportation, there will be no refund if the air transportation is cancelled for any reason and you choose not to access the tour or lodging facility by ground transportation.

National Parks Revealed and its suppliers are not responsible for cancellations or any expenses due to delays, weather conditions or mechanical breakdowns, or for any increase in costs effective after the quote and confirmation of the itinerary.

In accordance with Washington state law and except as otherwise provided in these Terms, if transportation or other services are canceled by us, all sums paid to us for services not performed in accordance with these Terms will be refunded within thirty days of receiving the funds from the supplier with whom the services were arranged, or if the funds were not sent to the supplier, the funds shall be returned within fourteen days after cancellation by us to you unless you request that we apply the money to another travel product and/or date.

Safety and Conduct: During the course of your tour, we require that you comply with all local laws, respect local customs and culture, accurately assess your abilities, and respect the privacy of other tour members. The decision of the local guide or local supplier is final on all matters that may threaten the safety or interfere with the well-being and enjoyment of others. The local guide/supplier also has the right in its sole discretion to remove anyone a) who it judges to be incapable of meeting the demands and requirements of participating in tour activities; or b) who it determines threaten the safety or detract from others' enjoyment of the tour. If you are unable to participate in a portion of or all of a tour for reasons covered by this paragraph, we will not offer a refund.

All tours will be arranged under the management of National Parks Revealed, an insured tour wholesaler. The tour wholesaler acts solely as an agent for the various sightseeing companies, transportation companies and other principals ("suppliers") and is in no way to be considered as the principal or operator of the subject services unless otherwise expressly stated.
